

RiseUp Community School:

Food Bank Assistant Job Description

Employees at RiseUp Community School must be committed to the Vision and Mission of the School.

Our mission is why we show up to work

The mission of RiseUp Community School is to engage young people who have previously dropped out of school or are at risk of dropping out in a supportive learning environment that holds each student to high expectations, cultivates social justice, and inspires every student to achieve a high school diploma and become prepared for college and careers after graduation.

Our vision describes the reality we are working to create

Our vision is that all young people, regardless of their circumstances, have access to an education that will prepare them to counter social inequities and realize their full potential. Our school empowers young people to transform themselves and become leaders in their communities. Our school is a haven of trust and respect, where students can prepare for success in careers, post-secondary education, and life. 100% of our graduates are prepared for and go on to post-secondary education or meaningful careers.

School Overview:

RiseUp Community School strives to provide the most challenging, the richest, the most supportive, and the most engaging high school experience for all students that show up at our doors. Most of our students have met and continue to experience barriers to smooth schooling. We feel it is our responsibility to help diminish barriers and to teach young people how to be agents of change in their lives and communities. Some key aspects of our program are:

- Project-based courses where students can apply learning in context
- Connection with post-secondary options through internships and concurrent enrollment
- Competency-based grading so students can show 21st-century skills vs strictly content knowledge

All RiseUp staff show a commitment to:

- Using proactive and reactive restorative practices to build connections with students, families, and staff
- Establishing community connections to widen the reach of RiseUp and the net of support for students
- Improving their impact by learning and practicing culturally relevant ways of interacting
